CIVIL ACTION NO. 4:22-CV-03096

PLAINTIFF KONNECH, INC'S
FIRST SET OF INTERROGATORIES AND REQUESTS FOR PRODUCTION TO DEFENDANT CATHERINE ENGELBRECHT

To: Defendant Catherine Engelbrecht, by and through her attorneys of record, Michael J. Wynne, Gregor Wynne Arney, PLLC, 909 Fannin Street, Suite 3800, Houston, Texas 77010.

Pursuant to Rules 26, 33, and 34 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, Plaintiff Konnech, Inc. ("Plaintiff" or "Konnech") hereby propounds these first set of Interrogatories and Requests for Production (collectively, the "Requests") on Defendant Catherine Engelbrecht ("Defendant" or "Engelbrecht"). Plaintiff requests that Defendant respond in writing and produce the requested documents within thirty (30) days in accordance with the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and the Definitions and Instructions provided in this Request. Defendant should serve the written responses and responsive documents and things in her possession, custody, or control upon the undersigned counsel. Plaintiff also requests that Defendant continue to supplement her document production and answers to these requests in accordance with the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

Respectfully submitted,

- (g) With respect to a STATEMENT, the person(s) making the statement, any person(s) present at the time the statement was made, the approximate date of such statement, the subject matter of the statement, and, if possible, the exact words used.

II. INSTRUCTIONS

In addition to the requirements set forth in the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, which Plaintiff incorporates herein, the following instructions apply to each of the discovery requests set forth below, and are deemed to be incorporated in each individual Request:

1. The Documents covered by these Requests include all Documents in Your possession, custody or control.
2. These discovery requests are continuing in nature and require supplementation or amendment to include information subsequently acquired or as required by the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.
3. If for any reason You are unable to respond to any request set forth herein, explain in detail Your inability to respond. If for any reason You are unable to respond to a part of any request but able to answer other parts of the request, respond to as much of the request as You can and explain in detail Your inability to respond to the remainder of the request.
4. If You contend that any of the information requested herein is protected or privileged, so state and set forth the protection or privilege claimed, the facts upon which You rely to support the claim of protection or privilege, and the scope of said protection or privilege, but proceed to disclose or produce all requested information for which protection or privilege is not claimed. With respect to each requested Document that is being withheld, You are hereby requested to furnish a privilege log identifying the basis for the claim of privilege or protection and a description of the Document, including:
 - (a) the title of the Document and the nature and subject matter of its contents;
 - (b) the date the Document was prepared or any date appearing on the Document;
 - (c) the number of the Document's pages, attachments and appendices; the names of the persons who authored or prepared the Document, and an identification by employment and title of each such person, and if the person is an attorney, a statement so saying;
 - (d) the names of each person to whom the Document, or a copy thereof, was sent, shown or made accessible, or to whom it was explained, together with an identification of each such person and entity with which they are employed or associated, and if the person is an attorney, a statement so saying;
 - (e) the number of each paragraph of these Document Requests to which the Document relates;
 - (f) the portion(s) of the Document as to which privilege is claimed; and
 - (g) the type of privilege asserted.
5. Counsel for Plaintiff is willing to discuss with You or Your counsel any questions regarding perceived ambiguities in, or claims regarding the burdens involved in or compliance with the discovery requested herein in an effort to resolve any such issues without the necessity of Court intervention. If You cannot clarify any perceived ambiguities by reference to the Definitions, contact counsel for Plaintiff for clarification.

6. You shall produce all documents in the manner in which they are maintained in the usual course of Your business and/or You shall organize and label the documents to correspond with the categories in these Requests. A Request shall be deemed to include a request for any and all file folders within which the document was contained, transmittal sheets, cover letters, exhibits, enclosures, or attachments to the document in addition to the document itself.
7. Documents shall be produced in such fashion as to identify the file, folder, department, branch or office in which they were located and, where applicable, the natural person in whose possession it was found and the business address of each document's custodian(s).
8. Documents attached to each other should not be separated. If any portion of any document is responsive to the document Requests, then the entire document must be produced.
9. Electronically Stored Information should be produced in the following format: As single-page TIFF images, at 300 dots-per-inch, with an iPRO LFP image load file and a Concordance delimited dataload file (*.DAT) with the following fields: BEGNO, ENDNO, BEGATTACH, ENDATTACH, PAGES, VOLUME, RECORDTYPE, SENTDATE, SENTONETIME, CREATEDATE, CREATETIME, LASTMODDATE, LASTMODTIME, RECEIVEDDATE, RECEIVEDTIME, PARENTFOLDER, AUTHOR, TO, CC, BCC, SUBJECT/TITLE (fields combined), ORIGSOURCE, CUSTODIAN, NATIVEPATH, ATTACHCOUNT, FILEEXT, FILENAME, FILETYPE, FILESIZE, APPLICATION, MD5HASH, and FULLTEXT. All spreadsheets responsive to these Requests that are maintained in the usual course of business in electronic format shall be produced in their native format (along with the TIFF images, linked using NATIVEPATH field).
10. Under no circumstances should Electronically Stored Information be converted from the form in which it is ordinarily maintained to a different form that makes it more difficult or burdensome to use. Electronically Stored Information should not be produced in a form that removes or significantly degrades the ability to search the Electronically Stored Information by electronic means where the Electronically Stored Information is ordinarily maintained in a way that makes it searchable by electronic means. Databases or underlying data should not be produced without first discussing production format issues with the Plaintiff's counsel. If You decline to search or produce Electronically Stored Information on the ground that such Electronically Stored Information is not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost, identify such information by category or sources and provide detailed information concerning the burden or cost You claim is associated with the search or production of such Electronically Stored Information.
11. If You have reason to believe there are e-mails created that are responsive to these Requests that have not been retained, state the name and address of the e-mail provider (e.g., MSN, Yahoo!, Thunderbird, Gmail, Bloomberg, AOL, etc.) or program used by You and what efforts You have made to retrieve the requested information.

12. In the event that any document responsive to any Request was, but is no longer, in Your possession, custody or control, or has been lost, destroyed, discarded or otherwise disposed of, You shall provide sufficient information to identify the document as completely as possible and state, in writing, the details and circumstances surrounding the disposal of the document.

recording, noting, embodying, containing, mentioning, studying, analyzing, discussing, evaluating, or relevant to.

30. The term “including” shall mean “including without limitation” or “including but not limited to” the referenced items or information. The use of “including” in describing categories of documents should not be read to narrow any request.

31. The terms “identify” or “identity,” unless otherwise defined in an interrogatory shall require you to provide:

- (a) With respect to a NATURAL PERSON, the full name, present title, present business and resident address (last known if present addresses are unknown), and business and residence telephone numbers, and the title of the last position held;
- (b) With respect to a CORPORATION, PARTNERSHIP, ASSOCIATION OR OTHER LEGAL ENTITY, its name, address, and legal form (e.g. corporation, partnership, etc.);
- (c) With respect to a DOCUMENT, its title, number, date, authors, signers, subject matter, addressee(s), addressor(s), or other designation, including, but not limited to, subject matter or general nature, person(s) receiving copies of such document, present location and custodian;
- (d) With respect to an ORAL STATEMENT OR COMMUNICATION, the maker, the recipients, when made, where made, persons present when made, mode of communication and subject matter;
- (e) With respect to an ACT, ACTION, OR ACTIVITY, its description, the identity of the person(s) participating in the act or activity, the date or approximate date on which the act or activity was committed, and the identities of any person(s) observing the act or participating in the activity;
- (f) With respect to a MEETING, the identities of the persons attending the meeting, the date of the meeting, the subject matter of the meeting, and the place of the meeting; and
- (g) With respect to a STATEMENT, the person(s) making the statement, any person(s) present at the time the statement was made, the approximate date of such statement, the subject matter of the statement, and, if possible, the exact words used.

II. INSTRUCTIONS

In addition to the requirements set forth in the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, which Plaintiff incorporates herein, the following instructions apply to each of the discovery requests set forth below, and are deemed to be incorporated in each individual Request:

1. The Documents covered by these Requests include all Documents in Your possession, custody or control.
2. These discovery requests are continuing in nature and require supplementation or amendment to include information subsequently acquired or as required by the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.
3. If for any reason You are unable to respond to any request set forth herein, explain in detail Your inability to respond. If for any reason You are unable to respond to a part of any request but able to answer other parts of the request, respond to as much of the request as You can and explain in detail Your inability to respond to the remainder of the request.
4. If You contend that any of the information requested herein is protected or privileged, so state and set forth the protection or privilege claimed, the facts upon which You rely to support the claim of protection or privilege, and the scope of said protection or privilege, but proceed to disclose or produce all requested information for which protection or privilege is not claimed. With respect to each requested Document that is being withheld, You are hereby requested to furnish a privilege log identifying the basis for the claim of privilege or protection and a description of the Document, including:
 - (a) the title of the Document and the nature and subject matter of its contents;
 - (b) the date the Document was prepared or any date appearing on the Document;
 - (c) the number of the Document's pages, attachments and appendices; the names of the persons who authored or prepared the Document, and an identification by employment and title of each such person, and if the person is an attorney, a statement so saying;
 - (d) the names of each person to whom the Document, or a copy thereof, was sent, shown or made accessible, or to whom it was explained, together with an identification of each such person and entity with which they are employed or associated, and if the person is an attorney, a statement so saying;
 - (e) the number of each paragraph of these Document Requests to which the Document relates;
 - (f) the portion(s) of the Document as to which privilege is claimed; and
 - (g) the type of privilege asserted.
5. Counsel for Plaintiff is willing to discuss with You or Your counsel any questions regarding perceived ambiguities in, or claims regarding the burdens involved in or compliance with the discovery requested herein in an effort to resolve any such issues without the necessity of Court intervention. If You cannot clarify any perceived ambiguities by reference to the Definitions, contact counsel for Plaintiff for clarification.

6. You shall produce all documents in the manner in which they are maintained in the usual course of Your business and/or You shall organize and label the documents to correspond with the categories in these Requests. A Request shall be deemed to include a request for any and all file folders within which the document was contained, transmittal sheets, cover letters, exhibits, enclosures, or attachments to the document in addition to the document itself.
7. Documents shall be produced in such fashion as to identify the file, folder, department, branch or office in which they were located and, where applicable, the natural person in whose possession it was found and the business address of each document's custodian(s).
8. Documents attached to each other should not be separated. If any portion of any document is responsive to the document Requests, then the entire document must be produced.
9. Electronically Stored Information should be produced in the following format: As single-page TIFF images, at 300 dots-per-inch, with an iPRO LFP image load file and a Concordance delimited dataload file (*.DAT) with the following fields: BEGNO, ENDNO, BEGATTACH, ENDATTACH, PAGES, VOLUME, RECORDTYPE, SENTDATE, SENTONETIME, CREATEDATE, CREATETIME, LASTMODDATE, LASTMODTIME, RECEIVEDDATE, RECEIVEDTIME, PARENTFOLDER, AUTHOR, TO, CC, BCC, SUBJECT/TITLE (fields combined), ORIGSOURCE, CUSTODIAN, NATIVEPATH, ATTACHCOUNT, FILEEXT, FILENAME, FILETYPE, FILESIZE, APPLICATION, MD5HASH, and FULLTEXT. All spreadsheets responsive to these Requests that are maintained in the usual course of business in electronic format shall be produced in their native format (along with the TIFF images, linked using NATIVEPATH field).
10. Under no circumstances should Electronically Stored Information be converted from the form in which it is ordinarily maintained to a different form that makes it more difficult or burdensome to use. Electronically Stored Information should not be produced in a form that removes or significantly degrades the ability to search the Electronically Stored Information by electronic means where the Electronically Stored Information is ordinarily maintained in a way that makes it searchable by electronic means. Databases or underlying data should not be produced without first discussing production format issues with the Plaintiff's counsel. If You decline to search or produce Electronically Stored Information on the ground that such Electronically Stored Information is not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost, identify such information by category or sources and provide detailed information concerning the burden or cost You claim is associated with the search or production of such Electronically Stored Information.
11. If You have reason to believe there are e-mails created that are responsive to these Requests that have not been retained, state the name and address of the e-mail provider (e.g., MSN, Yahoo!, Thunderbird, Gmail, Bloomberg, AOL, etc.) or program used by You and what efforts You have made to retrieve the requested information.

12. In the event that any document responsive to any Request was, but is no longer, in Your possession, custody or control, or has been lost, destroyed, discarded or otherwise disposed of, You shall provide sufficient information to identify the document as completely as possible and state, in writing, the details and circumstances surrounding the disposal of the document.

II. INSTRUCTIONS

In addition to the requirements set forth in the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, which Plaintiff incorporates herein, the following instructions apply to each of the discovery requests set forth below, and are deemed to be incorporated in each individual Request:

1. The Documents covered by these Requests include all Documents in Your possession, custody or control.

2. These discovery requests are continuing in nature and require supplementation or amendment to include information subsequently acquired or as required by the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.
3. If for any reason You are unable to respond to any request set forth herein, explain in detail Your inability to respond. If for any reason You are unable to respond to a part of any request but able to answer other parts of the request, respond to as much of the request as You can and explain in detail Your inability to respond to the remainder of the request.
4. If You contend that any of the information requested herein is protected or privileged, so state and set forth the protection or privilege claimed, the facts upon which You rely to support the claim of protection or privilege, and the scope of said protection or privilege, but proceed to disclose or produce all requested information for which protection or privilege is not claimed. With respect to each requested Document that is being withheld, You are hereby requested to furnish a privilege log identifying the basis for the claim of privilege or protection and a description of the Document, including:
 - (a) the title of the Document and the nature and subject matter of its contents;
 - (b) the date the Document was prepared or any date appearing on the Document;
 - (c) the number of the Document's pages, attachments and appendices; the names of the persons who authored or prepared the Document, and an identification by employment and title of each such person, and if the person is an attorney, a statement so saying;
 - (d) the names of each person to whom the Document, or a copy thereof, was sent, shown or made accessible, or to whom it was explained, together with an identification of each such person and entity with which they are employed or associated, and if the person is an attorney, a statement so saying;
 - (e) the number of each paragraph of these Document Requests to which the Document relates;
 - (f) the portion(s) of the Document as to which privilege is claimed; and
 - (g) the type of privilege asserted.
5. Counsel for Plaintiff is willing to discuss with You or Your counsel any questions regarding perceived ambiguities in, or claims regarding the burdens involved in or compliance with the discovery requested herein in an effort to resolve any such issues without the necessity of Court intervention. If You cannot clarify any perceived ambiguities by reference to the Definitions, contact counsel for Plaintiff for clarification.
6. You shall produce all documents in the manner in which they are maintained in the usual course of Your business and/or You shall organize and label the documents to correspond with the categories in these Requests. A Request shall be deemed to include a request for any and all file folders within which the document was contained, transmittal sheets, cover letters, exhibits, enclosures, or attachments to the document in addition to the document itself.

7. Documents shall be produced in such fashion as to identify the file, folder, department, branch or office in which they were located and, where applicable, the natural person in whose possession it was found and the business address of each document's custodian(s).
8. Documents attached to each other should not be separated. If any portion of any document is responsive to the document Requests, then the entire document must be produced.
9. Electronically Stored Information should be produced in the following format: As single-page TIFF images, at 300 dots-per-inch, with an iPRO LFP image load file and a Concordance delimited dataload file (*.DAT) with the following fields: BEGNO, ENDNO, BEGATTACH, ENDATTACH, PAGES, VOLUME, RECORDTYPE, SENTDATE, SENTONETIME, CREATEDATE, CREATETIME, LASTMODDATE, LASTMODTIME, RECEIVEDDATE, RECEIVEDTIME, PARENTFOLDER, AUTHOR, TO, CC, BCC, SUBJECT/TITLE (fields combined), ORIGSOURCE, CUSTODIAN, NATIVEPATH, ATTACHCOUNT, FILEEXT, FILENAME, FILETYPE, FILESIZE, APPLICATION, MD5HASH, and FULLTEXT. All spreadsheets responsive to these Requests that are maintained in the usual course of business in electronic format shall be produced in their native format (along with the TIFF images, linked using NATIVEPATH field).
10. Under no circumstances should Electronically Stored Information be converted from the form in which it is ordinarily maintained to a different form that makes it more difficult or burdensome to use. Electronically Stored Information should not be produced in a form that removes or significantly degrades the ability to search the Electronically Stored Information by electronic means where the Electronically Stored Information is ordinarily maintained in a way that makes it searchable by electronic means. Databases or underlying data should not be produced without first discussing production format issues with the Plaintiff's counsel. If You decline to search or produce Electronically Stored Information on the ground that such Electronically Stored Information is not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost, identify such information by category or sources and provide detailed information concerning the burden or cost You claim is associated with the search or production of such Electronically Stored Information.
11. If You have reason to believe there are e-mails created that are responsive to these Requests that have not been retained, state the name and address of the e-mail provider (e.g., MSN, Yahoo!, Thunderbird, Gmail, Bloomberg, AOL, etc.) or program used by You and what efforts You have made to retrieve the requested information.
12. In the event that any document responsive to any Request was, but is no longer, in Your possession, custody or control, or has been lost, destroyed, discarded or otherwise disposed of, You shall provide sufficient information to identify the document as completely as possible and state, in writing, the details and circumstances surrounding the disposal of the document.
